BERING SEA CLAIMS

SENATOR MORGAN'S REPLY TO LORD SALISBURY'S CRITICISMS.

He Sarcastically Scores the British Premier and Denounces the Action of Canadian Seal Pirates.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Nov. 14.-Senator John T. Morgan, in an interview with a reporter in regard to Lord Salisbury's claim | Minor. that Senator Morgan's objection to the paycould be mistaken in facts which stand opposed to the demands of Great Britain for $425,000 damages for seizure of fishing vessels arrested in Mr. Cleveland's first administration. The Bering sea tribunal, of which I was a member, had no authority to decide any controversy between the United States and Great Britain that led to the question of damages or the liability either government to the other for damages of seizure of ships, and it made no such decision, but expressly declined to do so. Heating Stove After a very rough examination of the facts presented in the case of the two governments, supported on either side by the testimony of more than one thousand witnesses, and the entire diplomatic correspondence of the governments covering this subject, and after listening to the great lawyers who appeared before the tribunal, four on either side, and which occupied more than four months at the time. It is not likely that any member of that tribunal was less informed than Lord Sailsbury as to the facts in the case.

"His Lordship doubtless supposes that his nformation of the facts in this case is quite superior to mine, otherwise he would not attribute to me the grave error of a nistaken conception of the facts. Evidently he concedes that if I am right in my statement of the facts that he must be wrong in claiming that the United States owes Great Britain $425,000 for depredations committed on British ships found poaching on the seal herds of the Bering sea, when the record shows that more than half of the sum claimed as damages, if this is due at all, is due to citizens of the United States who violated the laws of their own herds under the cover and shelter of the British flag. If I should be wrong in uniting with Mr. Bayard and Mr. Blaine in the aion that these marauding British subects were contrary to public morality and nternational comity, I think I cannot be wrong in denouncing this conduct of American citizens under cover of the British flag as being close kin to piracy, and I cannot the British flag gave these people as being an act of arrogance and presumption which scarcely concealed hostile intentions. I am unable to perceive why the United States government should reward the perpetrators of this base conduct or should compliment the government of Great Britain by conceding that it was either just, friendly or

His second marriage was not blessed in this way. The couple began to drift apart three years ago, when Mrs. Menn fell in love with her husband's barkeeper, Michael O'Harrell, aged twenty-eight. She was fifty-five years of age, and her actions caused trouble in the family. But her husband, who was nearly sixty years old, blamed O'Harrell more than any position he explains on the ground of the committee's poverty, seeing in the auction an easy way to cancel an old indebtedness, President Dewitt, of the Marquette Club, said he had secured this definite, flat proposition. He sent an envoy to the headquarters at New York. The object of the visit was to get information which would save the organization a lot of work and all other enthusiastic citizens a lot of work, which might be misdirected. Mr. Carter, after a long talk, said the matter was one of a bonus, and that the location had practically been contingent on a purse to pay obligations contracted in other campaigns. Mr. Carter had said the amount was $54,000, and assured the Chicago man that Pittsburg stood ready to contribute that much, in adlition to the regular sum for halls, committee expenses and other items of the vention. This proposition was placed be-fore the club, and President Dewitt brought the statement to the mass meeting held in the clubroom of the Sherman House this afternoon. It was decided to raise the money, and several committees were appinted to begin the work.

TOO MUCH MARRIED.

Miss Marjorie Rhoaden Has W. M. P. Burdick Arrested for Bigamy.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 14 .- Miss Marjorte Rhoaden, of Stockton, Cal., a beautiful young woman about twenty-one years of age, has caused the arrest of Willey M. P. Burdick, of this city, on the charge of bigamy. In the police court to-day she stated that she met Burdick in California some time since, and after his return East they continued to correspond until about a month ago, when, at his request, she came to this city and they were married. After securing her money Burdick deserted his wife and was later found working on a farm near Hemiock lake. Miss Rhoaden nstituted an investigation, and through Burdick's uncle she learned that Burdick was married before he married her, and had been for several years. Wife No. 1 was in police court to-day and testified that she was married to Burdick in 1892, but only lived with him one day. She produced her marriage certificate, also a letter notifying per of an action brought for divorce by he nusband, written the day after his second marriage, and signed by a fictitious lawyer in this city. The case will be continued to-morrow. Miss Rhoaden has begun an ection for annulment of the marriage and the first wife has begun divorce proceed-

A dispatch to the Daily News says that a careful estimate makes the total number of persons killed outright in the massacres fifteen thousand and it is probable that thir-

"A member of the diplomatic corps," the correspondent of the Standard says, "remarked to me to-day that wherever foreign embassadors had established consuls the allegation that the Armenians had commenced the disorders had been disproven. Much can be done to stop the massacres, and it is believed that the Sultan now recog-

this morning. The Russian and Italian fleets are understood to be on their way to Salonica bay to join the British fleet of about twenty war ships already there; the French fleet is expected there shortly and the representatives of the powers, as a result of communications exchanged with their governments, have had another informal meeting at the French embassy. When the squadrons have united and Sir Philip Currie, the British embassador, returns some decided step upon the part of the powers may be anticipated.

The Kurds of Van are said to be attacking and pillaging the Armenian villages and the Turkish officials are reported to be powerless to preserve order. A telegram received here from Sivas on Tuesday evening, but only made public to-day, says that a massacre of the Armenians has been commenced in that city; but, according to the Porte, order has been restored there. The facts in the case may be expected shortly. It is rumored here to-day that Shakir Pasha, the imperial commissioner for Ar-menian reforms, is about to be recalled in order that he may be appointed Grand Vizier in succession to Hali Rifat, the present incumbent of that office. If the rumor is correct this would seem to be another open defiance of the powers, for Shakir Pasha is regarded as the chief butch-er of the Porte. In fact, he has been charged with calmly looking on while the Turkish soldiers fired on every helpless Christian they caught sight of. Every day brings further details of the massacres at Erzerum and each report makes the story of the crimes there more hastly. Men, women and children were hot, bayoneted, burned and outraged for ays, killing and mutilation lasting for the initiative in attacking the Turks. The latter are not always to blame for outbreaks, but there seems to be no excuse for the flendish massacres which follow. When once the Turk begins killing, he never knows when to stop. Further troubles are also reported at Harput, Malitich and Arabakir, and at Marash the bloodshed and outrages are said to have been even more terrible and prolonged than at Erzerum.

There is very little doubt that the Turks believe their days are numbered, and are, therefore, determined to exterminate the Armenians root and branch before they themselves have been finally and forever driven out of the civilized world. SENATOR LODGE GIVES HIS VIEWS ON THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

He Tells Britishers Uncle Sam Will Not Permit Any European Power to

LONDON, Nov. 15 .- The Caronicle this morning publishes an interview with Hon. Wealthy South Dakotan Supposed to Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, in which he expresses his views on the subject of the Monroe doctrine. After going LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 14 .- It is now be- into the history of the doctrine in detail, lieved that G. R. Kimball, the banker, who Mr. Lodge said: "Nobody in America ever disappeared from Deadwood on Sept. ? pretended that the Monroe doctrine is a while temporarily insane, carrying $100,000 proposition of international law. That question can proparbitration and to seize and hold by force disputed territory would open the doors, if England pursued such a course, to any other European power that desired to acquire any additional territory in Central or South America. It would fatally infringe on the Monroe doctrine. The people of the United States could not regard it as otherwise than a movement hostile to them. The Monroe doctrine, it should be remembered, is quite distinct from any question of reparation for injuries received by the subjects of foreign powers at the hands of the governments or people of Central or South American republies. With such questions we have nothing to do, but we cannot permit, under cover of a demand for reparation or in any other way, new territory to be acquired by any European

"Thus far the Monroe doctrine has remained a mere statement, found only in President Monroe's message, but it is my belief that in the next Congress both House and Senate will, by formal resolution, declare it to be an integral part of the policy of the United States, to be maintained at DENVER. Stead, editor of the Review of never consent to any veto being placed on the freest possible expansion of the Pacific ocean trade and settlements and the colonizing of the Western world. He insisted that it would be absurd to submit the Venezuelan question to arbitration, especially with the example of the termination of the Alabama claims as an object lesson. In conclusion he said he recognized the fact that Americans were quite in a frame of mind to invent new doctrines if they found that the Monroe doctrine did not apply to Venezuela. Editorially discussing the interview with Senator Lodge, the Chronicle says: "Mr. Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, is not likely to attempt to play the role of Napoleon of Venezuela. Unless the United States formally proclaims a protectorate over all of the South American republics we are bound to protect our citizens. Failing the establishment of such a protectorate, we do not see how loose poilcies like those of the Monroe doctrine can stop us from protecting the lives and prop-

BRITAIN AND COLOMBIA.

John Bull in Trouble with Another American Republic.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.-There has been much friction of late between Great Britain and the South American republic of Colembia which, it is thought, may lead to radical steps by the British. The Colombian government gave a concession to an English syndicate to build a rallway through the State of Antioqua, tapping the richest sections of Colombia. The company did not proceed with the work and the government declared the concession forfeited. The company then presented a claim for $640,000 damages. Colombia refused to pay, but consented to arbitrate the claim. Out of this arbitration has grown the present friction. Dr. Lurhsen, the German minister to Co-lombia, acted as one of the arbitrators, but as the Colombian press and public believed him to be favorable to the English claim. riotous scenes attended the meeting of the arbitrators. Colombian soldiers were stationed at the German minister's house, and it is claimed they assisted the excited populace in indignities on the minister's house-hold which, however, were not serious, be-ing confined to noise, threats and alleged drunken disorder. As a result of concerted action in London and Berlin, the British minister at Bogota, Dr. Jenner, and the German minister received joint instructions to protest to the President of Colombia. This was done, and the Colombian government consented that a public explanation should be made in the Diario official. But this explanation, signed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, is said to have been as offensive as the preceding events. No settlement was made on the arbitration and now pressure is being brought to bear on the British Foreign Office to administer a rebuke to Co-lombia which will serve as a reminder that British investments in that country must receive full protection. The pressure comes, from interested capitalists, and it is not known that Lord Sallsbury has, as yet, considered the advisability of putting in motion the machinery of the Foreign Office in order to protect an English investment of a pri-
